QUESTION 1

"The conditions, interests, customs and sects of the world and nations do not continue according to any specific pattern or stable program. There is always change from time to time and from condition to another. In as much as this applies to persons, times and provinces, it applies likewise to countries, ages and states. Such is God's order amongst His creatures. This social reality undoubtedly leads to a change in people's interest. In view of the fact that the interests of the people are the foundation of the Syariah, it is both necessary and reasonable that the Syariah rules should undergo changes to suit the changing conditions and needs – Ibnu Khaldun."

Discuss the above statement in the light of the functions and suitability of 'Urf (Customs) and Maslahah Mursalah (Considerations of Public Interest) as rational and developing methods in deducing Islamic legal rulings for the modern times.

Besides that, no state can be forced to recognize the Fatwa made by the National Fatwa Council..."*

(Extract from an article by Zaini Nasohah, Undang-Undang Penguatkuasaan Fatwa di Malaysia, Islamiyyat 27(1) (2005) UKM, pg. 25)
